

Luigi SANDRIN
Director Corporate Services

Mr. Luigi Sandrin was appointed EDA Corporate Services Director on 1st July 2016. Reporting to the Chief Executive, he is responsible for the overall management of financial and human resources, as well as administrative issues.

Previously, Mr. Sandrin held the position of Head of Administration at the European Institute for Gender Equality in Vilnius from 2010 to mid-2016. In this capacity, he had specific responsibilities for corporate governance, administration, budget, procurement and finance.

Prior to that, Mr. Sandrin worked for the European Agency for Reconstruction during the period 2000 to 2008 and held the position of Head of Centre respectively in Podgorica and Skopje. The European Agency for Reconstruction managed on behalf of the European Commission the European Union's main assistance programmes in the Republic of Serbia, Kosovo, Montenegro and the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia with a cumulative portfolio of €2.8 billion on projects with emphasis evolved from post-conflict reconstruction to helping countries with reform in areas such as justice and home affairs, public administration and public finance, and economic development.

From 1992 to 1999, Luigi Sandrin worked at different European Union Delegations respectively in Sierra Leone, Slovenia and Hungary.

Born on 18 April 1961 in Italy, Mr. Sandrin holds a university degree in agriculture science. He is married with three children.